

Social and Personal

WITH the summer season, entertaining in Richmond becomes much more informal in its nature, and the people who remain in town for the heated months find in the evening hours a number of pleasant diversions and agreeable ways of meeting their friends in an informal way.

At the country clubs every night gay little groups may be seen at supper on the wide, open porches, while here and there a quiet tete-a-tete is noticed.

Launch parties down the river fill their own place in the social routine of the day, and especially among the younger set are they popular. On Monday evening a delightful party, with Mrs. James Elyson as chairman, was given aboard the "Ethel May" by Messrs. Alfred Crenshaw, Charles McFarland, Robert Bruce and Versal Blackburn. Guests of the evening were Miss Jane Cason, Miss Gertrude Crenshaw, Miss Julia Elyson and Miss Mattie Crowder.

The boat left the wharf about 6 o'clock, and after a beautiful trip down the river, supper was served at Drewry's Bluff.

Returning, the boys and girls joined gaily in singing old songs and enjoying themselves generally, reaching Richmond about 11 o'clock.

To Occupy New Home. Mrs. Selden Walke and little daughter have returned from a visit of several weeks to Mr. Walke's sister, Mrs. H. M. Melhany, Jr., at the University of Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Walke expect to move into their new home at Woodland Heights this week.

Miss Hall Returns. Miss Emily Glenworth Hall has returned to her home in Richmond after a stay of six weeks in the North. Miss Hall was also a guest in Baltimore, Md., and Berryville, Va. Her aunt, Miss Chamberlayne, was detained in Berryville by sickness, but is now much improved, and will return to the city about August 1.

Richmond Girl in New York. Miss Margaret M. Williams, of Libby Hill Park, left last week via the Old Dominion Line to visit relatives and friends in New York City and other Northern points. Miss Williams will be away from Richmond for a month.

To Wed To-Day. A wedding of interest here, which will take place to-day, very quietly in the home of the bride's sister, is that of Miss Carolyn Elizabeth Monroe to Noble T. Tongue, of Baltimore.

Only a few friends and intimate relatives will be present at the ceremony, which will be performed in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parran Hollis in Staunton, Va.

Williamson-Wright. A marriage of interest to a wide circle of friends of both the bride and groom took place recently in the residence of Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Wright, near Kezletown, Va., when their eldest daughter, Miss Mary Catherine, became the bride of Jacob Williamson, of Harrisonburg.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Francis Burr, of the Kezletown Methodist Church, assisted by Rev. B. F. Wilson, in the parlor of the Wright home, which had been prettily arranged with palms and various potted plants.

Miss Nelson Maxwell played softly on the piano for the bridal party entered and during the ceremony.

The bride wore a smart tan coat suit, with hat and gloves to match. Mr. and Mrs. Williamson are now at Atlantic City, and after traveling for a while they will be at home to their friends in Harrisonburg, where they will make their future home.

In and Out of Town. Miss Gladys Peyton, of Richmond, is

Messrs. Barton H. Grundy & Son, Richmond, Va.:—Some weeks ago, at the suggestion of my son, in consequence of my family going out of town for a few weeks, I sent my three horses—two bays and a sorrel—to your place, "Chantilly," so that they might have the benefit of running on the road for a short time. The sorrel horse was returned on May 1st and the two bays on May 10th, and I desire to here express my gratification at the condition of all three horses on their return. Not only were they in excellent condition, showing that they had proper care while in charge of your people at Chantilly, but from observation since I am satisfied that they were greatly benefited by being turned out. I desire to give this testimony for what it is worth, in the hope that it may be of some service to you.

Yours very truly,

LAWYERS NEARLY FIGHT IN COURT

Question of Attorney's Attitude Toward Client Causes Hot Wrangle in Chicago.

TAGGART AGAIN MENTIONED

Woman Accused of Assisting in Torture of Irish Girl Establishes an Alibi.

CHICAGO, ILL., July 13.—Wrangling by lawyers and further testimony to impeach Ella Gingles' story of torture in a bathroom of the Wellington Hotel, on February 16, marked the closing hours to-day of the State's case against the young Irishwoman for larceny of lace from Miss Agnes Barrette, her dressing parlor, and the State's case against Attorney B. J. Short, announced at night that he would conclude with a few witnesses in the morning. The case will probably reach the jury by Friday evening.

Furnishes an Alibi. An alibi was furnished for Miss Barrette, proprietor of the Wellington Hotel, accused by Miss Gingles of being the moving spirit in the plot to lead her into "white slavery" and of helping to abuse and cut her in a bathroom of the hotel.

Miss Mary Hale, proprietor of a hair dressing parlor, and a close friend of Barrette, the evening of February 16, and of attending the theatre with her. Later, she said, they went to Miss Barrette's room and went to bed. Alibi occurred during the time in which Miss Gingles said she was undergoing mistreatment at the hands of Miss Barrette and her companions.

"Did Miss Barrette have anything to drink on that evening?" asked Attorney O'Donnell on cross-examination. "No, I never saw her touch a drop."

Aetions of O'Donnell. Detective Sergeant McNulty told of the actions of O'Donnell when the defendant's lawyer was informed in a mysterious note that his client was in danger at the hotel.

"O'Donnell told me to go in and tell O'Brien's office," said McNulty. "I got a taxi and O'Donnell drove to the hotel, and I saw him go in."

Salute Avenue. I asked him why he was going to the house where Miss Gingles roomed first. He said he wanted to make sure that Ella was not at home. He showed us a note which said that she was being killed at the hotel. He said he went to O'Donnell's office and then to the hotel.

"When we got to the hotel a second time, we found Ella on a bed. She was excited, and her skin was scratched a bit. O'Donnell leaned over her and put his arms around her, and called her 'dear'."

The witness then testified that he examined the bathroom and found the transom covered with dust, showing that no one had crawled over it, as alleged by Miss Gingles.

Attorney O'Donnell asked the witness if he had ever seen the questioner show anything more than a friendly feeling for Miss Gingles. Mr. Short objected, saying this was a self-serving question.

In the debate that followed, the lawyers nearly came to blows and the judge intervened.

Capture Big Still. Revenue Officers Find Plant in Operation, But Owners Had Disappeared.

Revenue Agent Chapman, for the districts of Virginia and North Carolina, received information yesterday that Deputy Starbuck at Greensboro, with Deputy Marshals Bailey and Blaylock, drove thirty miles Monday and succeeded in capturing and destroying an illicit still. The still was in operation when the officers arrived, but was unable to procure any evidence which may lead to an arrest.

Information that the still was being run was received from a farmer in the neighborhood, who was paid $10 for his trouble. In certain districts the revenue officers have adopted the plan of offering rewards, and the result has been most satisfactory. Colonel Chapman may leave for North Carolina in a few days for the purpose of inspecting conditions.

NO EVIDENCE TO SUSTAIN CHARGE

Case Against Moose Organizer at Petersburg Is Dismissed.

FULL RESTITUTION MADE

People of Mann's Home City Discuss His Letter to Mahone.

The Times-Dispatch Bureau, 109 North Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va., July 13. J. T. Stallings, a citizen of Norfolk, who was recently arrested on warrants alleging misappropriation of funds belonging to Petersburg Lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose, which he organized on June 8, was discharged by the Police Justice this afternoon. The case was called at 2 o'clock. Relatives of the prisoner were present from Norfolk, and he was represented by Lawyers Coleman and Davis, of this city. Commonwealth's Attorney R. H. Mann stated to the court that after a careful and full investigation of the facts in the case, while there was some irregularity and some things apparently wrong about it, he was frank to say that he did not believe the charge of embezzlement or the fraudulent intent to conceal and appropriate the money could be established, and he would therefore ask to enter a nolle prosequi and have the warrants dismissed. The court promptly dismissed the warrants. It was stated that a full restitution of the funds in question had been made, and there was evidently no desire on the part of the high officers of the order to prosecute criminally. Among the officers were Supreme Organizing J. J. Davis, of Pittsburg, Pa., and Special Organizer J. P. Willmont.

It is stated that Petersburg Lodge of Moose will lose nothing by this unfortunate affair, and that to make the status of the lodge legal and right, Davis will formally organize the lodge anew and install its officers on Thursday night and grant the charter.

Judge Mann's Letters. The publication of General Mann's letters to General William Mahone, bearing upon the former's election as judge of Nottoway county in 1880 by the Readjuster League, and the fact that General Mann was the Democratic nomination for Governor at the August primary, to be used in the interest of the Republican candidate.

The letters have caused wide and diverse comment here. In Judge Mann's home city, and in the surrounding area, they have been discussed to-day.

Judge Mann's friends warmly declare that the letters show no inconsistency in their candidness of record or any material departure from his statements made on the public hustings during the last few months. They do not believe that the letters will injure him in the estimation of the thoughtful voters of the State; that the motive which induced the publication of the letters at this time will be understood by the people, and that his nomination is as fully assured now as it has been in the past.

But the friends of Mr. Tucker hold to different opinions. They believe the letters will prove a boomerang to Judge Mann and result in his defeat. They show enation over the publication of the letters, and are of opinion that the more they are discussed the more injurious to the writer their effect will be.

Judge Mann is away on a speaking tour in Southwest Virginia this week, and it is not known when he will return to Petersburg or to his headquarters in Richmond.

Trial for Murder. The July term of the Hastings Court will open on Thursday with a pretty full criminal docket to dispose of. One of the most important cases for trial is that of Wm. H. "Colored" Walker, who has been indicted for the murder of Thomas Walker, also colored, the motive being robbery. The murder was committed some weeks ago on the line of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad. In the southern section of the city. Walker was a man of good character, and he was accused of robbing among the negroes. He was first killed by a blow on the head, and then his throat was cut, and while he was bleeding to death he was robbed. Wise left the city for several weeks, but returned back one day and was arrested by the police. He was charged with the murder, and was held in the city jail. Dorsey Archer, as the principal in the crime, confessing to his own share in the crime, was placed on trial before a jury, and Wise will have to stand the brunt of the crime, and may go to the electric chair.

Personal and Otherwise. Sergeants Allen Fisher and Percy Lanier, and Corporals Thomas Fisher and Cousins will represent the Petersburg Grays at the Virginia rifle team practice, at Camp Arrington, near Williamsburg, the latter part of this month. They are all good marksmen.

Miss Catherine Britton, of New York, who has been visiting Mrs. J. H. Meacham, on Sycamore Street, has gone to Virginia Beach for a stay of several weeks.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held last evening, when concurrence was voted in various measures passed by the Common Council.

FREE For "Summer Complaint"

The common ailment of these hot days is "Summer Complaint," or diarrhea. It is very annoying and weakening and upsets the stomach. The cause of the trouble usually lies in food and water, which in the summer time are often laden with germs, but with many it is due to eating too much fruit or to eating over-ripe fruit. Whatever the cause, it is not good to take an astringent remedy that binds up the bowels and stops the flow too suddenly, but take a reliable, natural laxative like DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPsin.

Its antiseptic properties remove the germs which have been causing irritation. Children like it especially because of its gentle action and pleasant taste. Sals and purgative waters, tablets or pills, act so violently as to weaken you still more, and do but temporary good. DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPsin is the best remedy you can obtain for constipation, indigestion, summer complaint or summer colic, biliousness, sick headache, etc. All druggists sell it and it costs only 50 cents or $1.00 a large bottle. It is for all members of the family and should be your household remedy for these purposes.

Those who have never used DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPsin would like to make a test of it before buying in the future. Write to the doctor, or send a card to your nearest druggist, and you will receive a sample of the syrup free of charge. In this way you can get the benefit of the experience of a man who has been practicing medicine for over 40 years. The sample will be sent to you free of charge. Write to Dr. Caldwell, explaining how the person suffers and he will give you his best MEDICAL ADVICE based on half a century of experience in stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Attempts were also made to enter the dwellings of Mrs. G. A. Dalton and Mrs. De Jarnette, in the same neighborhood, but it is said that these thieves got nothing at either place. The police are investigating these robberies.
